WITH the opening of the immigration season comes the ever increasing demand for more accommodation for immigrants. The present immigration shed is ridiculously out of proportion to the amount of accommodation required. The tents that were in use last year or their like should be procured at once and set up ready for the occasion as it arrives.

H. Horton of the White Star coal mine has received a letter from the C.P.R. regarding the coal test recently made in the locomotive on the C. & E. line. The effect of the letter is that the coal was adequate for the purpose of raising steam but that its use would necessitate the placing of a grating over the smoke stack as the draught carried out the small pieces of burning coal, which would be likely to start prairie fires. The belief was also expressed that in order for the coal to be used profitably by the company the price would have to be reduced below $2.50 per ton. Owing to the haul between the mine and the track a reduction would be impossible.

At the meeting held yesterday in the C.M.B. hall for the purpose of founding a French Canadian association, J. G. Fairbanks was appointed chairman and W. Carriéry secretary, pro tem. Prince, Marrangi, Roy, Picard and others gave short addresses complimenting the promoters of the society and expressing the hope and belief that it would be useful and successful. A vote of thanks to the chairman and secretary of the meeting was adopted. The society will meet again next Sunday to discuss the best way to celebrate grandly their national feast on June 24th.

TRAIN SERVICE.

The train service over the C. & E. line has been very satisfactory during the past winter. Trains have run on time. There have been very few delays and practically no complaints. This is owing to the fact that since the slow winter time began on the main line the attempt at close connections has been abandoned and the C. & E. train ran on its own time. Besides, of course, there has not been as much traffic to handle during the winter as was during last summer or as will be during the coming summer. It is in regard to the coming summer the BULLETIN would like to say a word. It is already apparent that there will be very heavy travel and traffic over this line; probably much heavier than last season, and this means that if the attempt is made to carry on the business with only the same train service as last year there will be still greater dissatisfaction with the service than existed last year. As most of the travel comes from and goes to the east it is altogether desirable that close connections should be made at Calgary to and from the east if the change to summer time will admit; but it is altogether undesirable that trains should come in here at uncertain hours in the night, depending for their time not only upon contingencies on the main line, but also governed by a congestion of the traffic on the branch. There has been some talk of putting on three mixed trains per week in order to meet the increase of traffic. While this would be a gain in some ways it would be no gain in convenience to ordinary travellers or in distribution of the mails. What would be most to the advantage of the country would be to continue the present service of two trains a week, but make them passenger trains, or really mixed trains, and not what they are now, slow freight trains with a passenger coach attached. By making the run between Calgary and Edmonton at passenger speed, with suitable accommodation on the train for all classes of passengers, the trip to Edmonton would be one of the most if not the most attractive in the country for travellers and sight-seers generally—men of means and possible investors. There is no question that the present service is a strong detriment to this class of people travelling over the line, and that such travel is less now than when the line was opened. Even if a late start was made from Calgary the run through would be made in daylight and all points on the line would feel the benefit. There is no part of the C.P.R. system that is paying better than the Edmonton branch in proportion to outlay. There is no part of the country that is filling up as quickly with settlers, and therefore there is no part that is better entitled to an adequate and progressive train service, which will not only supply but keep a little ahead of actual requirements so as to permit and encourage progress.

PREVENT SMUT.

EDITOR OF BULLETIN.

Sir,—Permit me through the columns of the BULLETIN to advise the farmers to bluestone their oats and barley before sowing this spring.

Where these are not badly affected one pound of bluestone to (10) ten bushels is sufficient but if very smutty one pound to five or seven bushels should be used.

In all cases use one and a half pails of water to each pound of bluestone and sand should be strongly mixed while bluestone is being applied.

Except in two cases of barley which were very smutty, one pound to ten bushels gave good results on experimental farm last year.

Yours very truly,

ANGUS MACKAY, Supt
Experimental Farm,
Indian Head,
April 2, 1894.

Reading from "Sam Slick," Charles McCormick. Recitation, "Parody on the Burial of Sir John Moore," Mr. Mitchell, senior. Solo, "Comrades," Miss Birdie McKay, encore. Recitation, Miss Lizzie Mitchell. Comic reading, "Setting a hen," Mr. Storie. The following address was then read and a purse presented to Mrs. J. R. Brenton:

DEAR MADAM,—

It is idle for us to attempt in words to express our gratitude to you for the sacrifice you have made on our behalf during the past winter in order to teach us the science of music, especially as the sacrifice was a gratuity. Please, therefore, accept this paper as a feeble expression of our feelings towards you.

We have not only profited by your instructions but old and young have greatly enjoyed our social gatherings here, made so by your untiring energy. Wishing you the choicest blessing of Providence, we sign on behalf of your pupils and the public of the District.

Votes of thanks to the president and secretary were passed, and a motion to reorganize for the summer carried. The proceedings were closed with a hymn by the company.

FROM PARRY SOUND.

T. G. Pearce, of Agricola, who is now at Sundridge in the Parry Sound district assisting in organizing the colony that was to leave that place for Edmonton and points along the C. & E. line on April 4th, mentions the following as booked to leave Sundridge on that date: T. McGeer and family 2 cars, F. Milsap 1 car, F. Stafford 1 car, S. Simons 1 car, J. Fitzgerald 2 cars, N. Wilkinson 1 car, D. Simmonds 1 car, B. Pollard 1 car, R. Featherston 1 car, Mrs. Graham and family, C. Davidson, C. Soper. Besides those starting from Sundridge, settlers will load at three other points in the district and probably two special trains will be required. Mr. Pearce writes that every effort is made by interested parties to keep the people from coming to Edmonton, and the most outrageous falsehoods are told regarding the district. He encloses two clippings of letters from Parry Sound people decrying this country, which have been printed in the Parry Sound papers and are being circulated energetically. They have altered the determination of a number who had made up their minds to come.

One letter is from Andrew Miller who came here last spring with a family of growing children and returned to Parry Sound sometime during the winter. Mr. Miller says, "the land in the Edmonton district is really good, in fact hard to beat. The land there is capable of growing any kind of crops, grain, roots or veg tables." His objections are that the season is too short for grain and mature in, being two months shorter than in Parry Sound. The winter is cold, although he says from the middle of December 1893 until January 15 1894 it was mild and the snow not more than fourteen inches deep. There is plenty of water but it is all tinged with alkali except the Saskatchewan which is muddy for four months in the year. Edmonton is not as healthy as Parry Sound, and he has raised within a few bushels of as much grain per acre in Parry Sound as can be raised at Edmonton. In regard to these statements by Mr. Miller it may be said that the season here is not two months shorter than in Parry Sound. On the contrary the season opens here as early or earlier than in Parry Sound. Seeding commenced last year about April 25th and not on May 10th, as stated by Mr. Miller, and last spring was one of the latest on record. The fall was very early, but plowing did not cease for the season in the first week of October. In ordinary seasons plowing is continued until the 1st or 15th of November or later. Although last season was short the grain matured fully. Three steam mills and one water mill, all within 20 miles, have been running steadily on last season's crop of wheat. There have been large shipments of oats and barley, which have taken the highest market prices where sold, and there have been considerable shipments of seed grain and potatoes this spring to other districts. As to the water, that in some of the wells is tinged with alkali and the Saskatchewan is sometimes muddy, but many of the wells are perfectly good and the river is as clear as crystal most of the year. Even when muddy the water is perfectly good and clean when allowed to stand. Regarding health, it is easy to imagine that with settlers coming from all quarters of the world to any certain point there is likely to be more disease at that point than at another point where no new settlers are coming and people are leaving instead of coming. But even so, the town of Edmonton is less subject to disease of any kind and particularly lung diseases and typhoid than the town of Parry Sound or any other town of equal size in the Parry Sound district. Regarding Mr. Miller himself, he simply stayed here until he went away. He made no exertion to help himself either in the way of securing employment or land. Such men as he should never come here, and if they come they cannot get away quickly enough for the good of the district.

The other letter is written by Mr. John Fluker, who came with the colony two years ago. Mr. Fluker is of a different stamp from Mr. Miller. He is a ruster, who has done fairly well since he came here and is rapidly getting into shape to do better. His complaints are, frosted wheat, low prices and no money, and he uses much more extreme language than Mr. Miller. Mr. Fluker has grown two crops in this district and they have been fairly good crops. His wheat has not been frosted in either years. While living on a rented place he has been preparing his homestead and now occupies it and is in good shape to do well on it. He could not have got a homestead in as good shape in Parry Sound with the same amount of labor in ten years and he knows it. Why he should find fault with the country is a mystery. In his letter he says: "If I had the means I would not stay 24 hours in the poverty stricken, frost-smitten hole." As is well known here Mr. Fluker is well able to get away from Edmonton if he wanted to go. But instead of going he is every day taking a stronger grip on the country. It must therefore be concluded that in this case he was talking for talk's sake and did not intend what he said to be published. The letter begins: "This is the worst place I ever struck to make a dollar in; lots of trade and trading but no money in the country." The statement that there is no money has to be flatly contradicted. During the past season cash was paid at Edmonton for wheat, oats, barley, potatoes, beef, pork, mutton, poultry, eggs and butter. There were men who made it a business to buy and pay cash for these articles during the whole season. The farmer did not need to trade out any of these articles of produce unless he chose to do so, and by far the largest part of what was marketed was sold for cash. Of course if a man did not have the produce he could not get the cash, but if he had the product it was just the same to him as so much money. Mr. Fluker instances a very low price being offered for a certain sample of wheat. As everyone knows the price of wheat depends more upon its quality than is the case with any other grain. Wheat of good milling quality has been worth 45c. to 55c. a bushel all winter. Oats 20c. to 25c. and now 30c., barley 25c. to 30c. and now 35c., potatoes 30c. to 40c. and now 60c., beef 3c. to 4c. a pound live weight or 7c. a pound dressed, pork 5c. live or 6c. dressed, turkeys 15c. a pound dressed, geese 32c. a pound dressed, chickens 10c. a pound dressed, butter 20c. to 35c. a pound, eggs 15c. to 40c. a dozen. These, except in the case of butter and eggs, have been cash prices to the farmers for unlimited quantities. Of the articles mentioned Mr. Fluker does not and cannot question the suitability of the Edmonton district to raise all these articles of produce profitably, and he cannot deny that the prices are good compared with prices elsewhere—taking into consideration the productiveness of the soil and low cost of the land and of bringing it under cultivation. As for wheat, it is not a sure crop anywhere, but it is as sure and the yield is as heavy and the quality as good in the Edmonton district as in any part of the States or Canada of equal area. No doubt the trouble with Mr. Fluker is that he has not been able to earn money by the labor of himself and teams while raising his crops and improving his farm. It would strike any reasonable man that he could not do both at once in any country. In Parry Sound no doubt he could get more work than he can at Edmonton, but he couldn't make as good a farm there if he stayed a thousand years. People are advised to come to Edmonton for a certain purpose—to make farms and homes. They are not advised to come to earn wages by labor. It has been shown that if a man has a farm and is raising produce from it he can get money just as certainly and much more abundantly than if earned it by days labor, but he must wait until he gets in that position before he can expect to make money. For those who desire to follow this course, who desire to become the owners of comfortable homes and profitable farms, the Edmonton district is unequalled in America to-day, but for those whose ambition is to live from hand to mouth on their day's or week's wages, or who are looking for easy ways to get rich suddenly, Edmonton offers no special attractions and holds no special advantages. Farms and homes are the inducements of this district.

SUPREME COURT JUDGMENTS.

EIGHT LIEN SUITS.

Fraser & Co., Plaintiffs, vs. F. H. Peters, W. Hardisty and C. F. Strang, defendants.

J. B. Graham, Richard Hayes, William Lockhart, P. Royce, J. E. Lambert, R. J. Manson, Dennis McCarthy, Luc Author, Howey Bros., William Baker, plaintiffs vs. the same defendants.

The point involved in these cases is very important and for the first time arises in the Northwest Territories. They were tried during the May sittings of 1893 and the reserved judgments were given this week.

The contest was between the estate of F. H. Peters and the lien holders, the trustees of the estate claiming that the liens were not binding because "the mechanics ordinance" was ultra vires the Northwest legislature, also claiming that the assignment took precedence over the liens. The plaintiffs being the lien holders admitted that "the mechanics lien ordinance" was ultra vires as far as the validity of the same were concerned because the Dominion legislature could alone control registration, but contend that such being the case the liens still existed and were valid and that registration was simply means to prolong the life of the lien. His lordship held that the contention of the plaintiffs was correct and gave judgment first to all wage earners for 30 days wages, 2nd all other lien holders and wage earners as to wages over 30 days to rank pro rata on the balance in court, 3rd the balance to be a judgment against F. H. Peters. He gave the plaintiffs their costs also costs to E. V. Hardisty. The defence of the trustee of the estate was dismissed without costs against the money in court.

S. S. Taylor for the plaintiff (lien holders), N. D. Beck for the trustee C. F. Strang.

PATRONS OF INDUSTRY.

EDITOR'S BULLETIN :

A large meeting of the Patrons of Industry residing south of the river was held at Bro. Thomas Daly's, Clover Bar, on Tuesday last for the purpose of forming a county association and the election of necessary officers. Delegates were present from the different subordinate associations. R. Dinwoodie chairman, and T. Daly secretary of the meeting. The following officers were elected for the year: President, R. Dinwoodie; vice-president, W. Keith; sec-treas., T. Hyslop; sentinel, Mr. Bell; guide, D. S. Fulton; organiser, P. Ottewill. The new county association will be named South Edmonton and will meet at that place on the second Saturday in each month at 2 p.m., sharp, first meeting to be on the 2nd Saturday in May.

After discussing various subjects the following resolutions were passed unanimously:

1st. That this meeting does not approve of the scheme by which the Government would give 35,000 acres of land to the town of Edmonton or any other corporation for the construction of a bridge or for any other purpose, as we, the patrons of industry of South Edmonton, believe that all public lands held by the government should be given to actual settlers only. Also that as residents of the Northwest Territories we pay more money per head into the treasury than the people of the east, yet in that part of our Dominion the government spends hundreds of thousands of dollars in places where a barren land musk ox could not find food enough to live on for two months in the year; and we are thoroughly convinced that a traffic bridge across the Saskatchewan at Edmonton is badly needed; but as it is a public work we believe that the government should pay the whole cost out of the general revenue of the Dominion.

2nd. That it is the opinion of the farmers assembled that at the next meeting of the Legislative Assembly an absolute exemption law should be passed similar to that passed in Manitoba.

3rd. That the following temperatures are reported from the Dominion government observatory, Edmonton, for the dates given:

	Max.	Min.
Thursday, 5,	50
Friday, 6,	52	34
